“Section 1. Section 33-1243, Arizona Revised Statutes, is amended to read:

33-1243. Board of directors and officers; conflict; powers; limitations; removal; annual audit; applicability

A. Except as provided in the declaration, the bylaws, subsection B or other provisions of this chapter, the board of directors may act in all instances on behalf of the association.

B. The board of directors shall not act on behalf of the association to amend the declaration, terminate the condominium, elect members of the board of directors or determine the qualifications, powers and duties or terms of office of board of directors members. The board of directors may fill vacancies in its membership for the unexpired portion of any term.

C. If any contract, decision or other action for compensation taken by or on behalf of the board of directors would benefit any member of the board of directors or any person who is a parent, grandparent, spouse, child or sibling of a member of the board of directors or a parent or spouse of any of those persons, that member of the board of directors shall declare a conflict of interest for that issue. The member shall declare the conflict in an open meeting of the board before the board discusses or takes action on that issue and that member may then vote on that issue. Any contract entered into in violation of this subsection is void and unenforceable.

D. Except as provided in the declaration, within thirty days after adoption of any proposed budget for the condominium, the board of directors shall provide a summary of the budget to all the unit owners. Unless the board of directors is expressly authorized in the declaration to adopt and amend budgets from time to time, any budget or amendment shall be ratified by the unit owners in accordance with the procedures set forth in this subsection. If ratification is required, the board of directors shall set a

1 date for a meeting of the unit owners to consider ratification of the budget 2 not fewer than fourteen nor more than thirty days after mailing of the 3 summary. Unless at that meeting a majority of all the unit owners or any 4 larger vote specified in the declaration rejects the budget, the budget is 5 ratified, whether or not a quorum is present. If the proposed budget is 6 rejected, the periodic budget last ratified by the unit owners shall be 7 continued until such time as the unit owners ratify a subsequent budget 8 proposed by the board of directors.

9 E. The declaration may provide for a period of declarant control of 10 the association, during which period a declarant or persons designated by the 11 declarant may appoint and remove the officers and members of the board of 12 directors. Regardless of the period provided in the declaration, a period of 13 declarant control terminates no later than the earlier of:

14 1. Ninety days after conveyance of seventy-five per cent of the units
15 which may be created to unit owners other than a declarant.

16 2. Four years after all declarants have ceased to offer units for sale 17 in the ordinary course of business.

18 F. A declarant may voluntarily surrender the right to appoint and 19 remove officers and members of the board of directors before termination of 20 the period prescribed in subsection E, but in that event the declarant may 21 require, for the duration of the period of declarant control, that specified 22 actions of the association or board of directors, as described in a recorded 23 instrument executed by the declarant, be approved by the declarant before 24 they become effective.

25 G. Not later than the termination of any period of declarant control 26 the unit owners shall elect a board of directors of at least three members, 27 at least a majority of whom must be unit owners. The board of directors
28 shall elect the officers. The board members and officers shall take office 29 upon election.

30 H. Notwithstanding any provision of the declaration or bylaws to the 31 contrary, the unit owners, by a majority vote of members entitled to vote and 32 voting on the matter at a meeting of the members called pursuant to this

1 section at which a quorum is present, may remove any member of the board of 2 directors with or without cause, other than a member appointed by the 3 declarant. For purposes of calling for removal of a member of the board of 4 directors, other than a member appointed by the declarant, the following 5 apply:

6 1. In an association with one thousand or fewer members, on receipt of 7 a petition that calls for removal of a member of the board of directors and 8 that is signed by the number of persons who are entitled to cast at least 9 twenty-five per cent of the votes in the association or one hundred votes in 10 the association, whichever is less, the board shall call and provide written 11 notice of a special meeting of the association as prescribed by section
12 33-1248, subsection B.

13 2. Notwithstanding section 33-1248, subsection B, in an association 14 with more than one thousand members, on receipt of a petition that calls for 15 removal of a member of the board of directors and that is signed by the 16 number of persons who are entitled to cast at least ten per cent of the votes 17 in the association or one thousand votes in the association, whichever is 18 less, the board shall call and provide written notice of a special meeting of 19 the association. The board shall provide written notice of a special meeting 20 as prescribed by section 33-1248, subsection B.

29 the prevailing party in the civil action shall be awarded its reasonable 30 attorney fees and costs.

31 6. The board of directors shall retain all documents and other records 32 relating to the proposed removal of the member of the board of directors for

1 at least one year after the date of the special meeting and shall permit
2 members to inspect those documents and records pursuant to section 33-1258.

3 7. A petition that calls for the removal of the same member of the 4 board of directors shall not be submitted more than once during each term of 5 office for that member.

6 8. A MEMBER WHO IS DELINQUENT IN PAYMENT OF MONETARY PENALTIES SHALL 7 NOT BE BARRED FROM SIGNING A PETITION THAT CALLS FOR REMOVAL OF A BOARD
8 MEMBER.

9 I. For an association in which board members are elected from 10 separately designated voting districts, a member of the board of directors, 11 other than a member appointed by the declarant, may be removed only by a vote 12 of the members from that voting district, and only the members from that 13 voting district are eligible to vote on the matter or be counted for purposes 14 of determining a quorum.

15 J. Unless any provision in the condominium documents requires an 16 annual audit by a certified public accountant, the board of directors shall 17 provide for an annual financial audit, review or compilation of the 18 association. The audit, review or compilation shall be completed no later 19 than one hundred eighty days after the end of the association's fiscal year 20 and shall be made available upon request to the unit owners within thirty 21 days after its completion.
